

STRATFORD SUMMER ARTS FESTIVAL

Tickets for all events available at the door.
Recommended donation $10
www.stratfordstage.org

New Haven Symphony
Friday, July 11, 2008
Boothe Park
7:00 PM

Join us for a celebration of all things American!
Conducted by Music Director William Boughton and featuring soprano Samantha Talmadge, this exciting evening of music will include Bernstein's Overture to Candide, Sousa's Liberty Bell March, Copland's Rodeo, Leroy Anderson's
Horse & Buggy and Fiddle Faddle, and Barber's Knoxville Summer of 1915.

ROMEO & JULIET
The Players at Putney Gardens
July 12 - August 2, 2008
Fridays & Saturdays, 8 p.m.
Boothe Park's Sunken Garden

Directed by Jeremy Funke and Produced by Peter Wood.
Stratford is proud to promote its hometown troupe for a month-long run of one of Shakespeare's most famous and tragic plays.

Run to the Capulets, Raise up the Montagues,
"Crime Scene Shakespeare"
Thursdays & Saturdays
A hi-tech, post-modern production of Romeo and Juliet.

A Midsummer Night's Dream
Fridays & Sundays
A classical production of Shakespeare's summer romp in one of the most beautiful settings on the East Coast.

SHAKESPEARE IN REPERTORY
New Haven Theater Company
August 7 - 17, 2008

Thursday - Sunday, 8 p.m.
Grounds of the Shakespeare Theatre

QUICKIES IN THE PARK
Stratford Library &
SquareWrights Playwright Center
August 12 & 13, 2008
Tuesday & Wednesday, 7 p.m.
Grounds of the Shakespeare Theatre

The Stratford based playwright center has launched numerous plays and debuted more than sixty original works by local playwrights.

The collection of short plays is a "Best of Quickies in the Stacks."
The 10th Quickies in the Stacks will be mounted this December at the Stratford Library.